Vastu and Trees :-

We are discussing here how trees are linking with Vastu. Trees are god's gifts for us. Trees are planted around a dwelling place to enjoy the natural beauty. Trees should be planted in appropriate directions as per vastu to get relevant cosmic vibrations:

- i) Peepal (Asvattha-Vriksha) Good in West side of the house. Bad in East side of the house.
- ii) Bargad (Vata-Vriksha) Good in East side of the house. Bad in West side of the house.
- iii) Goolar Good in south side of the house. Bad in North side of the house.

The shadow of any tree should not fall upon the house from 9.00 a.m. to 3.00 p. m. i.e. trees should be situated at a distance from the house.

Some of the Good & Bad Plants / Trees are :-

- i) Trees or plantd with thorns like Ber, Babool etc. near a house cause fear of enimies;
- ii) Milking trees Mahuva, Vat, Pee pal etc. cause loss of wealth; fruit bearing trees

How to nullify the negative vibrations?

Trees like Ashoka, Moulshree etc. are planted in between, the defects or bad effects of these trees are nullified. Vine (Angoor), Chandan, pomegranate (Anar) trees are auspicious to be planted near the house. Punnag, Neem, Mango, Anar, Ashok, Coconut, trees are auspicious in any direction of the house, Amla tree should be planted in north-east part of the garden, Imli in the south - west, 4flair in south - east, Bilva in north -west. Pakad tree should be planted in the north, Banyan(Vat) in east, Goolar in south, pee pal in west and different kinds of mango trees should be planted in the middle portion. Those who are not blessed with children or who do not perform Agnihotra (offer oblations to the consecrated fire) get the equivalent fruitful results if they maintain mango grooves. Christmas trees, Badam and Ashoka trees are living pyramids to protect the house from negative vibrations.

Auspicious time for planting Trees:-

There are auspicious and favourable times (Muhurat) for planting trees. Hast, Pushya, Ashwini, the three Uttaras, Rohini, Shakha, Mrigshira, Mool and Shatbhisha are the constellations favorable for planting trees. Planting of trees is beneficial and successful only if it is done when Jupiter is in the center, Venus is in good (Uttam) position, Moon is in a quatic Zodiac (Rashi) or aquatic Lagna; when there is a combination of favorable planets (Graha) in the fourth place; when it is some auspicious Lagna.
